

The Star-Post

The County Paper.

Dunbar Rowland,
Jackson, Miss.,

SUBSCRIPTION $2 PER YEAR—ALWAYS IN ADVANCE.

BAY ST. LOUIS, MISS., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1926.

35TH YEAR—No. 49

PINE HILLS HOTEL ON BAY ST. LOUIS RAPIDLY NEARING COMPLETION

Formal Opening Expected to Be Held About December
20—Furniture Arriving Hourly—Electric Light
Service Already Installed.

Pine Hills On-The-Bay Hotel is rapidly nearing completion, the last of the stucco being put on the outside, the painting inside going forward with a large corps of painters engaged in the work, with the final floor work in the lounge being completed, with tremendous quantities of furniture coming in hourly and being set in place in the finished rooms on the first three floors, with plasterers completing the walls in the upper floors and with a general atmosphere of hurry combined with excessive energy on the part of all workmen, contractors and hotel officials.

The work on the grounds of not only the hotel company but also of the first unit of the Pine-Hills, Inc., the land company that is opening its first series of about 500 lots for sale, is scarcely as far advanced proportionately as the work on the building of the hotel itself, though about 75 teams and 50 men are engaged in putting in the roads, clearing off the accumulation of the grounds and getting the landscape into reception order for the opening of the hotel, which was announced by Hal Thompson, manager of the hotel, for possibly December 20, though this date is not announced with certainty. Mr. Thompson expressed himself as pleased with the general progress of the work and foresees a rapid completion of the hotel providing the weather remains fair so that work need not be hindered.

This beautiful hotel is located most attractively just at the head of the Bay of St. Louis and may be seen looming from the surrounding section from Henderson Point on the east and Bay St. Louis on the west. It is about 8 miles from Pass Christian and is connected with the Pass by a hard-surfaced road, the greater part of which has already been completed by the county. The hotel itself represents an unusual outlay and expenditure. The following figures representing the approximate costs. The hotel construction is totaled at about $1,250,000. The laundry equipment which is independent of the building is estimated at $32,500. This laundry is located in the basement of the building and is one of the most unique features of the construction, the plant being sufficient to care for not only the hotel needs but for the entire community that the men backing the entire development about Pine Hills foresee in the immediate future. The machinery for the laundry is already in place in the two large rooms designated for it and the plant will be ready to operate when the hotel begins to function.

The kitchen equipment represents about $20,000. The furniture which will be purchased some time ago, and which is arriving at the hotel daily and being set in place by a corps of workmen and maids is estimated at $225,000. The road work throughout the entire development represents several other thousands of dollars. These figures given to the stockholders to present the beautiful 185-room hotel to the public. The building is absolutely fireproof, no wood being used in the construction.

Outstanding Features. With no definite effort to describe the hotel mention of some outstanding features might be of general interest. The entrance is at the north through two roadways with a park between, and the porte-cochere leads onto the main entrance, leading to the lobby. The lounge to the east is a most beautiful property of light and planned room. The only wooden floor in the building is that laid in the lounge over the cement floor. The sun parlor to the south of the lounge and the open porch give a beautiful view of the expanse of the blue waters of the bay. The dining room impresses one as a most charmingly intimate yet dignified room. It opens on a lower level from the lobby and projects on the raised terrace that extends across the full front of the building leading down to the lawn that slopes gently to the water's edge about 300 feet away from the hotel.

The tiled floors in their gay mosaic designs are found in the lobby and dining room. The arched columns make an interesting canopy for the really beautiful floors. Tremendous numbers of windows throughout the building are a feature, letting in plenty of light and sunshine. Each of the bedrooms is fitted with bath and the rooms may be arranged individually or in suite. Space has been reserved in the building for the location of certain small stores for the convenience of the guests. The grill when completed will be a large, modern, residential park in the South, containing 1,400 acres. The road leads around the northern edge of Pine Hills, another large residential development which also will be one of the most modern resorts in America.

Below the first floor the ice and storage plant attract attention and the heating system is said to be noteworthy. At present coal is being used for heating but the tanks are already installed for the oil and all fuel to be used will be oil.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE FOUR)

English is being taught over the radio in Japan.

COAST WILL BE WELL SUPPLIED WITH BRIDGES

Every Stream Between Pascagoula and Pearl River to Soon Be Spanned.

(Gordon Huff in Times-Picayune)

With the opening to traffic during the week of the bridge across West Pearl river in Honey Island swamp, connecting Mississippi with Louisiana, the Mississippi Coast is brought within a three-hour drive by automobile to New Orleans. Autoists still, however, must use ferries at Chef Menteur and the Rigolets before reaching Slidell, which is seven miles south of the Pearl river bridges where the highway turns into Mississippi.

In making the trip from New Orleans to the coast, autoists use the Old Spanish Trail, which is surfaced the entire way, with a majority of the road on the Gulf Coast paved. At present, two ferries must be used on the Mississippi coast in driving to Mobile, one at Bay St. Louis and the other at Pascagoula. The two ferries will be abandoned during the next year for bridges.

The bridge across Bay of St. Louis, which will be one of the longest structures in the South when completed, is well under way and is expected to be opened to traffic during the early fall of next year. A large force of men is engaged in driving cross-ties piling for this span and work on the super-structure is expected to be started during the early part of the year.

Contract Is Let. A contract for construction of the bridge across Pascagoula river has been let and work soon will be started. At the same time, Jackson county awarded a contract for construction of a bridge across the Escatawa river, which will connect the Mississippi coast with the country to the north, the bridge to form a link in the highway leading from Moss Point to Lucedale.

In building these bridges, the three counties in Mississippi bordering on the Gulf of Mexico provide a complete highway from the coast to the Gulf. In Hancock county to the Alabama state line. From Henderson Point at Bay St. Louis in Harrison county to Biloxi, the Old Spanish Trail runs along the water-front and is paved. A six-mile stretch around Bay of Biloxi to the Gulf of Mexico has been provided for jointly by Harrison and Jackson counties will be put in service. A concrete highway runs from Ocean Springs through Pascagoula and Moss Point to the Alabama state line and the state of Alabama now is engaged in paving the stretch from the Mississippi line to Mobile.

Will Shorten Trip. The 8-mile road around Bay of Biloxi, which now is a link of the Old Spanish Trail, will be taken out of that highway and the new Bay of Biloxi bridge when that span is completed, shortening the train in Mississippi by four miles. The road now being paved around the bay will be used by citizens living in Harrison and Jackson counties north of the bay. The D'Iberville bridge, a steel and concrete span now under construction across the bay, will connect this paved highway with Biloxi, and with the growth of Biloxi, which is pushing rapidly to the north, it is expected that in the near future the North-Bay section will be made a part of the city.

New Auto Drive. In addition to this paved circuit of the Bay of Biloxi, the Mississippi coast is providing another beautiful automobile drive for visitors, from Pass Christian around Bay of St. Louis to Hancock county.

Work now is going on in the paving of this highway through property being developed as Pass Christian Isles, which when completed will be a large, modern, residential park in the South, containing 1,400 acres. The road leads around the northern edge of Pine Hills, another large residential development which also will be one of the most modern resorts in America.

Citizens of the Mississippi Coast have expressed the hope that the state of Louisiana soon will bridge the Rigolets and Chef Menteur, thereby providing a highway from New Orleans to Mobile entirely free of ferries. Bridge at these points will serve to shorten the trip from New Orleans to the Mississippi coast, making the Clearmont Harbor, Waveland

TALK ON MOSQUITO IS INTERESTING TOPIC OF EXPERT

Dr. T. H. D. Griffiths, Epidemiologist, of Gulfport, Addresses Club.

SAYS OVER 500 SPECIES
PEST IN EXISTENCE

Specie of Female Is Deadlier Than Male—Can Be Eradicated, Health Improved.

Dr. T. H. D. Griffiths, federal epidemiologist, who has carried on extensive work in and around Biloxi recently eradicating the mosquito, with headquarters at Gulfport, was a guest of the Rotary club Wednesday night and addressed this representation from our local business men on the ubiquitous mosquito.

Dr. Griffiths was fittingly introduced by Senator Carl Marshall, who was presiding for the evening, and in his address, popularly presented, dwelt on the mosquito from many phases, saying there were over 500 species and that the female was more deadly than the male; in fact, the mosquito said the male did no biting, his procreancy was so fashioned as to permit of no attack. The female attacked for animal blood since, it was necessary in order to cause the egg to become fertile.

Of the several hundred mosquito species, none were so deadly as the striped female, carrying malaria, and other deadly germs. The house mosquito, he said, was like all others, pestiferous, but not deadly and did not fly any further than a few hundred yards from the house. This pest was the easiest to get rid of by keeping places holding water dry, draining and such well sanitation, including the cutting of weeds.

How Havana and the balance of Cuba and the Panama zone was rid of the mosquito and yellow fever was mentioned by the learned speaker, and how other sections had become rid of the mosquito, it was possible to reduce the mosquito pest and menace to a minimum if not entirely.

During his remarks Dr. Griffiths made many humorous allusions and related several funny attitudes, all of which punctuated his remarks and added to the interest of his discourse. He was the guest of the Rotary club by special invitation and it is unfortunate his remarks were not heard by more. The public service in the interest of better health is interesting and important and statistics prove as a result the average human longevity has almost been doubled.

MISS WESTON BECOMES BRIDE OF H. H. ROBINSON

Beautiful Wedding Tuesday Evening at Logtown—Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Weston Becomes Bride of Birmingham Business Man—Leave For Havana, Cuba—Will Make Home at Birmingham After Holidays.

Cooper Chapel, at Logtown, this county, was the scene of a beautiful wedding Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock, when Miss Dorothy Weston, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Weston, of that place, became the charming bride of Hubert H. Robinson, young business man of Birmingham, Ala., at which place the bride met her future husband on a recent visit, following a visit to Europe, where she traveled the continent this summer, in company with the young ladies who were of the bridal party, including Miss Mary Perkins, of Bay St. Louis.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, a profusion of Easter lilies in tall baskets on elevated pedestals, and the season's flowers, chrysanthemums, were equally predominant, casting their attractiveness tied in bunches at the entrance of every pew. In addition there were potted palms and an artistic profusion of similar ferns.

An effective coloring was the soft light from myriads of candles, casting soft glow and adding to the solemnity and dignity of the occasion. Rev. Claude Rousseau, pastor of the Methodist church, at Algiers, La., and a cousin of the bride, tied the nuptial knot, assisted by Rev. W. L. Linfield, resident pastor. The church was filled to overflowing, representatives from two states witnessing the beautiful occasion that made two hearts one.

Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Bolton, of Alexandria, La.; Miss Mary Perkins, of Bay St. Louis; Miss Millicent Story, of Shreveport, La.; and Miss Andrea Martinez, of New Orleans. Each wore empire gowns of Azura-colored velvet, and carried Sanburn yellow roses. Miss Olivia Robinson, of Birmingham, sister of the groom, was maid of honor, and wore a gown of yellow velvet, carrying yellow roses.

Little Miss Lucy Weston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Weston, was flower girl, and gave roses. (Continued on Page Six) and Bay St. Louis and adjacent sections, thickly populated with families of men who have their business in New Orleans, even more attractive as a place of residence.

POSTOFFICE ASKS PATRONS TO SHOP AND MAIL EARLY

Postmaster Glover Stresses Importance of So Doing—Avoids Delay.

POSTMASTER GENERAL
NEW HEARD FROM

Says Merchandise Should Be Packed and Insured—Mail Cards Early.

Acting Postmaster H. C. Glover is anticipating the Christmas rush in the postoffice and is concerned in the soliciting and expediting of local business—that it may be done early, quicker and with more safety and assurance to the mutual advantage of both sender and receiver.

"Postmaster General New's instructions, received this week," Mr. Glover tells The Echo, covers every subject and is worthy of close perusal, and it would be well if the suggestions contained therein were carried out to the letter, as far as humanly possible.

"We cannot stress too much," continued Mr. Glover, "the importance of telling the public the importance of early shopping and mailing." Hence, The Echo publishes here, with the instructions, beginning with the first paragraph, appearing under the heading of "Wrapping and Packing."

All parcels must be securely wrapped or packed. Use strong paper and heavy twine.

Special Packing. Cans, golf sticks and umbrellas should be reinforced their full length by strong strips of wood, tightly wrapped and tied to withstand transportation and rough treatment, including the cutting of weeds.

Hats—Packed in strong corrugated or fiber boxes. Ordinary pasteboard hat boxes must be crated. Ladies' hats and stiff hats easily damaged should be marked "FRAGILE." Shoes—Pack in strong boxes, preferably corrugated cardboard. Wrap with strong paper securely tied with heavy twine.

Cut Flowers—Place in strong suitable boxes of wood, tin or heavy corrugated cardboard. Wrap with tissue to retain moisture.

Candies—Enclose in strong outside boxes or containers. Drawings, paintings, unmounted maps, etc.: Pack or wrap in strong material to avoid damage. When not flat, roll around a wooden core and then wrap and tie carefully or place in strong pasteboard tube.

Sharp-pointed or sharp-edged instruments or tools must have points and edges fully guarded to prevent injury to clerks in handling or damage to other mail. Crates suitably or thoroughly wrap so that they can not cut through the wrapping.

Fragile Objects. Articles easily broken or crushed must be protected or surrounded by liberal quantities of excelsior, or like material, in, around, and between the articles and the outside container.

Glasses, fragile toys, crockery must be packed so as to prevent the escape of particles or pieces if broken. Articles easily broken or damaged by moisture must be wrapped in waterproof paper only will not be accepted. Pack in a manner to prevent damage by shock or jar. Wrap in corrugated pasteboard or similar material.

All articles easily broken or damaged must be plainly marked "FRAGILE."

Perishable Matter. Articles likely to spoil within the time reasonably required for transportation and delivery will not be accepted for mailing. Wrap or pack carefully to protect from moisture, and plainly mark all such parcels "PERISHABLE." Use special delivery stamps to expedite delivery.

Addresses. Addresses should be complete, with house number and name of street, postoffice box or rural route number and typed or plainly written in ink. A return card should be placed in the upper left corner of every piece of mail. If a tag is used, the address and return card should also be written on the wrapper for use if tag is lost, and a copy of the address should be enclosed inside the parcel.

Postage. Postage must be fully prepaid on all mail. Affix the required amount of postage in the upper right corner. Full information concerning postage rates can be obtained at the parcel post or stamp window.

Limit of Weight and Size. No parcel may be more than 84 inches in length and girth combined. For delivery locally and in the first, second and third zones, 70 pounds is the maximum weight; in all other zones, 50 pounds.

Where to Mail Parcels. Uninsured parcels, 8 ounces or less in weight, may be mailed in street letter or package boxes, at all classified stations and branches, and at the maximum weight as are designated to receive parcels. Parcels weighing over 8 ounces can not be mailed in street boxes, but must be taken to the main postoffice or classified station or branch. Parcels containing meat food products, cut flowers, or other perishable matter should be mailed only at the main postoffice or one of the large classified stations.

When to Mail Christmas Cards and (Continued on Page Five)

LIBERTY OIL CO. INCORPORATES FOR LOCAL ACTIVITIES

Charter Is Asked By Bay St. Louis Citizens to Take Over Company.

LIBERTY COMPANY TO SHARE ITS PROFITS

Local Company Will Have Own Officials and Board of Directors.

Seeking to localize the business of the Liberty Oil company, a charter of incorporation is asked for from the state of Mississippi, with R. N. Blaize, resident agent for the Liberty Oil company, Inc., C. C. McDonald and Carl Marshall, with other stockholders whose names are not made public for the present.

An official from New Orleans, representing the parent company, said, "It is our idea to organize a local company to be known as 'The Liberty Oil Company of Bay St. Louis, Miss.' which company will own and operate an oil distributing station at Bay St. Louis."

Accordingly, already the proposed company has set to work to locate storage tanks and other paraphernalia at the railroad yards in this city, and from the extensive improvements it is evident no expense is spared and that the project is permanent from the very inception of business.

The par value of the shares of stock of the new company will be $25 each, and the sale of stock in the new company is encouraging, so it is stated.

Representative Carl Marshall is the resident attorney and manager. R. N. Blaize is looking after the interest of the many details. Mr. Blaize tells The Echo he is highly gratified over the outlook. The Liberty Oil company has always enjoyed a good business locally, he says, but now that we have abundant evidence that he is allied with representatives of the oil company, a Mississippi concern for Mississippi residents and their friends, we feel we are going to do more and better business.

ESTIMABLE WOMAN PASSES AWAY TO GREAT BEYOND

Mrs. Lena Damborino Laid to Rest Monday Afternoon—Mourned By Many Friends and Acquaintances—Was Member of Ladies' Woodmen Circle—Survived By Daughter and Son.

Death on Sunday last, November 27th, at 1:05 p.m., claimed a most estimable woman, Mrs. Lena Schneider, widow of Alex Damborino, who had spent the greater part of her life in Bay St. Louis in usefulness and who devoted her time in the practice of many virtues to mankind for which there doubtless is a reward in heaven.

Mrs. Damborino was a native of New Orleans, where she resided until she married in early life, from which time she moved to Bay St. Louis and resided here since. She was aged 58 years, 1 month, 28 days. Her husband passed away a few years ago, and she is survived by two children, Mrs. Victor Luc, of this city, and one son, John Damborino, a valued attaché of The Sea Coast Echo.

In addition to these three brothers survive, Martin Schneider, of Bay St. Louis; Nick Schneider, and John Schneider, both of New Orleans; also one sister, Mrs. Louise Triay, of New Orleans.

Mrs. Damborino was a member of the Ladies' Woodmen Circle, members of which organization attended the funeral in a body, and as a further attestation of the esteem in which the memory of this late sister is held, paid tribute to her worth with an unusually beautiful floral tribute.

Mrs. Damborino was an active member, as well as belonging to Catholic Neighborhood circle and other organizations, believing in unity, strength and by combined effort the greatest amount of good could therefrom come to the largest number.

A devoted member of the Catholic church, she went forth to meet her Maker, her spirit fortified by the sacraments of her church, her pastor, Rev. Father A. J. Gmelch, of the Church of Our Lady of the Gulf, administered during the last earthly moments and officiating at the funeral ceremony, which took place from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Luc, in Goodchildren street. The ceremony was at the house, church and Cedar Rest cemetery.

The funeral was largely attended and the beautiful floral offerings were unusually numerous.

To the bereaved sympathy is extended. There should be much consolation to these in the fact alone that their departed one spent a most useful life, practicing the three of great Christian virtues, faith, hope and love. Her deeds that live are golden, indeed, and certainly there is eternal happiness for those who have kept the faith and who have done unto mankind only but good in order that others may be happy. Such is the enabling character and unselfish spirit of the one whose passing away this week was deplored.

MANDAMUS PROCEEDINGS SUSTAINS L. S. BOURGEOIS IN WAVELAND ELECTION

Judge White Yesterday Afternoon Gave Candidate For Waveland Mayoralty Right to Place on Official Ballot in Coming Election.

MISS. K. C. DEPUTY INTERVIEWS HEAD ON SITUATION IN MEXICO

Mexican Anti-Christian Policy Dangerous to United States.

The Knights of Columbus do not ask the United States government to intervene in Mexico in behalf of the Catholic church. As a patriotic duty, the Knights of Columbus strongly oppose the policies and actions of the present Mexican government.

Such is the report of Thos. A. McKenna, state deputy of the Order in Mississippi, after a conference with Supreme Knight James A. Flaherty. Mr. Flaherty declared it is his belief that President Calles, of Mexico, has for his object the establishment of an autocracy so opposed to all ordinary ideas of political and religious freedom that it will seriously imperil the character of the instruction forced upon the youth of the land, the disservice for morality, marriage and family life that his Bureau spreads reveal his communistic sympathies.

If further proof is needed, the thinking man need only consider the appointment of ex-Grand Dragon of the Ku Klux Klan, as ambassador of Soviet Russia to Mexico. Alexandra Kollontay has been a revolutionist for twenty-seven years. Her radical activities caused her arrest in Germany and in Sweden. During the dark days of 1915 and 1916, Alexandra Kollontay was one of the horde of foreign agitators who came to the United States to cause trouble, lecturing from coast to coast. She is an exponent of atheism and free love. She is, in short, the perfect Red. This is the woman that is to represent Soviet Russia in Mexico, where, unfortunately, it is also represented and too closely copied.

Mr. Flaherty stated that Calles' government is and, by its nature, must be anti-religious. It is anti-Catholic only because Catholicism is the religion of Mexico. The accusation of clerical meddling in politics, of the enormous wealth of the church and of the church as a hindrance to education are without foundation in fact.

When asked for an explanation of how Mexico, predominantly Catholic, is ruled by anti-Catholic legislators, Mr. Flaherty said: "In Mexico, bullets rule—not ballots. Mexican elections have been shown to be farcical. Citizens have no such freedom to express their will as they enjoy in this country. Only the brave and reckless man votes according to his own mind in politics. Assassination is not infrequently the penalty for the casting of an honest vote."

Mr. Flaherty also outlined for Mr. McKenna the provisions written into the Mexican constitution against the Knights of Columbus property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any other buildings, to possess property, to maintain convents, to conduct primary schools, to direct or administer charitable institutions. These provisions apply not only to the Catholic church but to every creed that comes under the head of Christianity. It is unlikely that any man there is so foolish as to own church real estate or mortgages on the same. They are forbidden to own church buildings, or any

The Sea Coast Echo

ECHO BLDG.

Thirty-Five Years of Publication.

Chas. G. Moreau, Editor and Publisher.

Official Journal Board of Supervisors.
Official Journal City Bay St. Louis.Member National Editorial Association.
Member State Press Association.Subscription Terms, $2.00 Per Annum Always in Advance.Entered as Second-Class Matter at the Postoffice, at Bay St. Louis, Miss., under Act of March 3, 1879.

Not every plan to raise money succeeds.

It's funny how people are fooled on little gags.

No, Pauline, Santa Claus is not a joke; ask Daddy, he knows.

Folks who visit public libraries know who puts the "dit" in reading.

The beginning of 1927 will see many resolutions in force, just for a day.

Now that Thanksgiving is over the children know what to look forward to.

Now that they plan to make oil from coal you can watch the price of coal.

Lots of children want to know if the weather man put the "now" in snow.

The football season is over—maybe the students will study a little before Christmas.

The purchase of tuberculosis Christmas seals will help mankind rid itself of a great curse.

The British coal strike is settled, but that doesn't necessarily mean that the price of coal is.

Russia is a source of much debate, but we notice that the debaters stay in this country.

France shows signs of reducing her army but what Great Britain wants to know is in the air.

The way some men start work is to look over their mail, talk to their friends and then go to lunch.

A ROW OVER A BOOK.

London is amazed over "The Whispering Gallery," a book by an anonymous author, who claims to have been on intimate terms with the allied statesman during the war. Its astounding statements are arousing furious denunciation. Five cabinet ministers have already denied statements attributed to them and Lloyd George says it is "imaginative balderdash" and "a pack of lies."

The author asserts that the world's most famous men have talked intimately to him on the gravest questions. The publishers defend the book, which is having an astounding sale.

An anonymous author is not to be believed against the denial of the men he quotes. When the living disprove his quotations no one should believe the words he puts in the mouth of the dead. It seems to us that reputable publishers would not disseminate such loose talk on serious matters without, at least, requiring the author to give his identity.

Just how the book should create a furor we do not know. Few sensible persons place credence upon irresponsible utterances, although many may read it under the impression that here, at least, is the truth.

Since writing the above comment the publishers have withdrawn the book from sale. The reputed author denies his alleged writing, saying that he did not even know the "in-between." Over in this country, however, the publishers, who have the American rights, insist that the book will be on sale. The public ought to condemn such practices by refusing to buy the book and thus convince the publishers that anonymous slanders are not profitable.

POSTMASTER SCOUTS PROCRASTINATION.

Postmaster H. C. Glover has quite a list of injunctions received from headquarters, which are published elsewhere in this issue of The Echo. It is addressed principally and aimed at the eleven-hour shopper and postoffice patron around Christmas.

The man or woman who congests the postoffice on the last days prior to Christmas is certainly void of consideration—in the average instance. There is apparently a lack of consideration for those who handle the unusual volume of mail at the season fast approaching, to say nothing of the risk of packages intended for Christmas reaching their destination too late.

It is well worthy to peruse the instruction for holiday shippers and abide thereby. Better than all other consideration: It will mean so much to you, dear reader, for your own satisfaction and comfort. Remember last year how belated you were?

FOUR MAJOR HOTELS TO OPEN.

During the next few weeks the Mississippi Gulf Coast will witness an unusual program of hotel openings, brand new hostilities that will open their doors for the first time. There are four major hotel units, none ranking below the ordinary.

These magnificent hostilities, with their formal opening dates, are Pine Hills, on Bay St. Louis, December 20; Markham hotel at Gulfport, January; Edgewater Gulf, between Gulfport and Biloxi, January 10; Tivoli hotel at Biloxi, January.

These, with other hotels, it is hoped the influx of winter visitors will be amply taken care of, but if predictions and other expectations are realized, after the holidays, the question will arise, where will we put 'em?

TWELVE WORLD HEROES.

While we are not sure of the extent of the contest we call your attention to the selection of high school boys and girls of the world in naming the twelve "greatest world heroes."

There is not a warrior among the group selected, unless one so names George Washington, who had to his credit much more than the winning direction of an army. Here are the twelve world heroes as selected by the high school students, given in the order of votes received: Louis Pasteur, Abraham Lincoln, Christopher Columbus, George Washington, Benjamin Franklin, Woodrow Wilson, Florence Nightingale, Joan of Arc, Socrates, Johann Gutenberg, David Livingstone, George Stephenson.

Taken as a whole the list is not bad. Most people will have others to suggest, and dozens spring into mind, but the selection is worth noting, and the lives of those named worth the knowing.

CITY WEEDS AGAIN.

Noting the existence of weeds over the city, along public and private property, in lots and on grounds surrounding some of the prominent business and other places in the city, it would appear the effort is made to save the seed for possibly a better and bigger crop for next year.

The fact that the weed crop in Bay St. Louis this year has been a bumper one we do not see how the harvest could be made better for next season. This does not apply only to public places but private as well. It passeth understanding to build any excuse for the existence of weeds growing wild and at random over the city.

All agree on the subject of a "city beautiful," the interior of our homes are attractive and in order, we dress and appear well, yet the rank inconsistency of allowing weeds to grow on one's sidewalk and front yard and along the public highways in the very heart of the city is a matter that cannot be reconciled.

We have appealed to the city authorities, the street commissioner, the health authorities, but to no avail. In this fight we are backed by the very best citizenry of Bay St. Louis, and the matter resolves to this if those in authority cannot do it, why not get men who will.

This is the second of a series of articles to be written on the subject, unless the proper remedy is forthcoming another will appear at an early date. These will be in the shape of interviews from leading citizens. We should be able to get one hundred such interviews.

GOV. WHITFIELD'S MISFORTUNE.

Regardless of partisan feeling or political affiliation, no one will fail to learn of Gov. Whitfield's misfortune, illness that developed and finally the amputation of his left leg from the thigh becoming necessary.

It appears some few years since while the governor was playing lawn tennis he fell and bruised a knee cap. Nothing was thought of the injury at the time until it became aggravated as a result of natural course until the amputation became necessary in order to save the distinguished patient's life.

Press reports are to the effect the governor stood the ordeal well and his condition, from latest reports are to the effect he is doing as well as could be expected, that his condition is satisfactory.

Gov. Whitfield is 58 years of age and that he is now disabled for life is by no means a cheerful aspect. He has not only personal friends but personal acquaintances and many who know him as the chief magistrate of a great state whose sympathies are with him. The hope is generally expressed he will recover and his usefulness continued for many years. The state can ill afford the loss of citizens who serve well and with unselfish interest. Our best wishes to Gov. Whitfield.

THE MORALS OF MANKIND.

That the "double standard" is doomed, is the opinion of Prof. T. W. Galloway of the American Social Hygiene association, who concludes that, unless the character of man be bettered women will be "as loose as men are and always have been in a quarter of a century."

The eminent professor is unknown to us but his view is interesting, and, in part, correct. The double standard ought to be dead although killing it through a process of loose morals for women is repulsive. Men, however, with all their faults are not quite as black as they are always painted. Many of them, even in this modern era, have lived clean lives.

Morality, however, to be real must be exercised through choice. The man or woman who is virtuous solely through lack of opportunity to be otherwise is nothing worth bragging over. It is only those who face the test of every day life without contamination that develop moral strength. That is what the nation needs. The new freedom for women affords them opportunity for evil, it may be, but it also gives them a greater opportunity for the development of moral character.

OVER AT PASS CHRISTIAN.

Passing through our neighboring city of Pass Christian, over the bay, one cannot help but note the vast change that has come over the place within a space of hardly a year. Public improvement there is evident on every side. One's attention need not be called to the work resulting from the spirit of a splendid citizenry and progressive residents.

Not only along the Riviera front, but the full length of back street and side roadways as well we find every surface paved, excellent motor roads and streets on every side, we find many new buildings in progress of construction and in the business section proper there has been such a volume of new building and number of new places as to change appearances for the better and to command not only the admiration but confidence of newcomers—whether they come to reside or engage in business.

This is all healthy sign. The civic spirit is right; the town is well governed and the individual progress combined create for Pass Christian a factor that will soon make for it the distinction of "fastest growing point" along the Mississippi Gulf Coast. Our neighbors are to be congratulated.

DISCHARGE MARRIED TEACHER.

George Bernard Shaw, the British author, who recently turned down the cash award that accompanied the Nobel prize, breaks out in a new field when he comments on the discharge of an English school teacher at Twickenham on the ground that her responsibilities as the mother of a seven months' old baby were incomparable with her school duties.

Shaw's comment was: "Twickenham is near the river, and the sooner the Twickenham people put their Education Committee in the river the better. It would be far more sensible to refuse to allow any woman to become a teacher unless she had at least one baby, and looked after it properly."

The custom in this country, we believe, varies. There are some sections where only unmarried women are allowed to teach, and others where married women, who are mothers, are employed. There seems to be no reason why a married woman, who wishes to teach, should not be employed. Certainly, motherhood is no reasonable excuse for banning a teacher.

THREE MAJOR PROJECTS IN PROGRESS.

The city of Bay St. Louis is enjoying at present the construction of three major projects, new $80,000 central public school building, $60,000 theater building and bridge over Bay St. Louis to cost three quarters of a million dollars. The last is by no means least. Outside readers will learn with more than ordinary interest the building of the bi-county bridge is moving forward at an acceleration that "looks good." Work on the bridge is going forward and the structure is far out into deep water and soon the scene of operation will be so far out in the distance as to lose sight of view.

We are very proud of our new school building, for it means more to the city than a pile of brick and cement, for the future of the city depends on its schools, and the building of the theater, a place of amusement for the public, too, is significant.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

This week's hemstitched lemon-squeezer goes to the flapper who's en route to Alaska, to hunt Christmas seals.

Still, a hospital chart beats the personal column in telling where some motorists go Sundays.

There's little hope for a new dance until some gal steps on a mouse, or sits on her ma's curling iron.

What's the correct definition of coal?—Headline. About 5 bucks too much per ton, professor.

Think, madam, before you give up hopes of managing your husband. It takes some circus six years to train a jackass.

'Tis tough. Someone put in a long distance call to the Canadian northwest and the local operator got 8 inches of snow down her shirtwaist.

No town will grow when its building program has more stalls than a livery stable.

We presume the "Devil Dogs" in the postal service have shifted to Mail Pouch tobacco.

"I have to take a lot off my mother-in-law" roars an Omaha merchant. Well, mister, she certainly dresses different from what some women do.

Colorado woman does prominent underwriter. Fine! Now when the roof leaks he can cover it with insurance.

Bootleggers should find business good in Nowata, Kansas.

How can the man who motors home with a new safety razor be accused of cutting corners?

Mouse sneaks up flapper's legs—Headline. Curses, another run on the hose!

Frankly speaking, we believe blondes prefer gentlemen, too.

If you don't think a gal has anything on just let her rest her cheek on your shoulder.

Now that hello girls are saying "thank you" after a number is called for we expect, very shortly to see our hospitals filled with Bell shocked patients.

The gold-digger who picks a pie-face gent for her hubby doesn't always get the dough.

The employees in a northern shoe factory recently made their employer a present of a new heater, so when he gets sore he can fire the stove.

Is he dumb? Ha-ha. The poor fish waited six hours in a Memphis drug store to take Sal Hepatica out to supper.

"Plastering isn't the only thing that's cracked in a college dormitory," roared the old man who received a telegram from his son asking for 500 bucks.

No, Hilda, we don't think Tunney will fight the bozo who visited 18 box factories to see if they did shadow boxing.

Sitting on an old maid's lap is one way of rising in the world.

He who can't cranketh his flivver on a frosty morning has little trouble in starting his vocabulary.

A boarding house is a place where the waitress says: "Hominy grits will you have?" 21 times per week.

Darkies who live in glass houses should not throw bones.

Don't expect Western Union to hire your boy as a messenger if he thinks night letters should be written on a blackboard.

Perhaps the reason some florists don't care for children is because they've had too much experience with nurseries.

Have insects ever been known to starve to death?—Headline. Yes, two horse flies were recently found dead in a filling station.

Even the shoplifter can get arrested when she takes a notion.

Goodness only knows why a man will run from a hurricane when he has the nerve to ask his wife if her dress wasn't meant for a handkerchief.

Divorces Gain; Marriages Fall Off, During 1925

A survey shows that divorces increased more rapidly than marriages in the United States during 1925.

Estimating the population of the country as 115,378,004 on July 1 of that year, the commerce department recorded 1,181,838 marriages for the 12 months, or an increase of 0.3 per cent over the previous year. Against these figures were 175,495 divorces, an increase of 2.7 per cent.

While the net increase in marriages in the country as a whole was only 0.3 per cent, the relative change for the various states ranged from a decrease of 13.5 per cent in Georgia to an increase of 35.4 per cent in Florida.

The divorce scale ranged from a decrease of 29.5 per cent in Nebraska to an increase of 23.1 per cent in Rhode Island.

Rides Barn in Wind.

Perry Bridges, farmer near Fort Smith, Ark., was in his barn feeding cattle when this week's tornado visited that section. The barn was lifted by the blow and carried 75 feet while Bridges rode as a passenger, and landed unhurt.

Spacious cribs attached to the wall of one end of parlor cars in service on a southern railroad have proved of great aid to mothers caring for babies while traveling.

Hancock County Insurance Agency

FIRE
TORNADO
AUTOMOBILE LIFE

INSURANCE

CASUALTY
BONDS
FIDELITY
JUDICIARY

IN ALL ITS BRANCHES

Let Us Take Care Of Your Needs

A. A. Scaife,
S. L. Engman, Agents.Phone 108
Hancock County Bank

VIEWS AND REVIEWS

"What They Say Whether Right or Wrong."

Prof. Leonard E. Hill, London physiologist:
"No girl ever caught pneumonia through wearing a low blouse."

Prof. T. W. Galloway, of the American Association of Social Hygiene:
"Petting is dangerous."

Premier Mussolini:
"There are only a few hundred people in Italy who pay attention to what the German, English and American newspapers say."

Senator Cossens, of Michigan:
"I believe more harm is being done to the development of our country through widespread installment buying than in any other way."

Michael J. Curley, Archbishop of Baltimore:
"We are not as sober a nation as we might be."

Albert B. Fall, former Secretary of the Interior:
"All I desire is a fair and unprejudiced jury."

Commander Addison, of the Cape May (N. J.) Coast Guard:
"If the thirsty ones are depending on a supply of liquor from off-shore, they will have to look to other sources."

George Bernard Shaw, British author:
"It would be far more sensible, to refuse to allow any woman to become a teacher unless she had at least one baby, and looked after it properly."

Gen. Chiang Kai-Shek, leader of the Cantonese Revolutionary Forces:
"Our attitude towards America is friendly, but we consider America an imperialist, because she has not given the Philippines freedom."

Sir Rabindranath, Bengal poet and philosopher:
"I had hoped that the United States would develop pacifism, but the country is too aggressively anti-Asiatic and too selfish."

Mme. Fritz Kreisler, wife of world-famous violinist:
"The day of the concert stage is passing rapidly."

Nathan Straus, Hebrew leader:
"The wealth of the Rockefeller is a blessing to this country and to the rest of the world."

Gene Tunney, world's heavyweight boxing champion:
"I think Shaw one of the greatest literary minds of the day."

Roger W. Babson, statistical expert:
"Is not the whole church service honeycombed with hypocrisy?"

Experts Say That Moon Does Not Affect Crops

The moon may affect lovers and cause the tides, but "moon farming" is pure moonshine, department of agriculture experts declare, thus exploding another tradition.

The supposed effect on certain farm activities of the "dark" or the "light" or some other phase of the moon, finds no substantiation among the scientists. They say that the moon has no influence on weather or soil, and even the light of the full moon is not nearly intense enough to have any effect on plant growth or disease.

Vicious Hog Kills Man.

R. I. Miller, a farmer near Johnstown, Pa., was fatally injured this week by a vicious hog which attacked him as he was trying to drive it from a yard at his farm. The animal, which knocked Miller down and tore his throat with its tusks, defied all efforts of Mrs. Miller to frighten it away and before she could summon assistance her husband was dead.

Silent Curses.

Although both were deaf-mutes, James Handy, 68, of Kansas City, Kan., has been granted a divorce from his wife, Mrs. John Handy, on the ground that she nagged and cursed him in the language of the fingers.

"Back-Biting."

A resolution passed by the members of the First Baptist church of Houston, Tex., will require the 5,022 members to repledge themselves to avoid "tattling, back-biting, unrighteous anger and intoxicating drinks" or consider themselves out of the church. The time limit set is "before January 1, 1927."

Jewels, "Trash."

Hiding her jewels in a waste paper basket, the contents of which was dumped into an ash can, has caused the loss to Mrs. George C. Cox, of Rochester, N. Y., of jewels valued at $4,000 and the arrest of the ash collector on a charge of grand larceny.

NEEDED COMPANY

A: "If I lend you ten dollars, what security will you be able to give me?"

B: "The word of an honest man."

A: "All right, bring him along and I'll see what I can do for you."

An expert states that it is impossible to predict weather in advance for any great length of time with any degree of certainty.

Use Your Head as well as Your Letterhead!

"Let me give you this tip, Fred—and its based on long experience, as you know: Don't ever try to save a few cents on your sales letters by using a mimeograph job instead of a good printed circular."

"You can't fool anybody today about a form letter being 'strictly confidential.' Folks don't think any less of your offer because it is made to others, too; but they do dislike anything cheap or second-rate! Don't forget that."

This office is prepared to print your circular letters, including the letterhead form, at a price that will further discount the merits of a mimeograph or other "home-made" product.

We will set your message in typewriter type, and give each copy the appearance of a carefully prepared letter. It will be the kind of "printed salesman" you can be proud to have represent you.

Get our prices, and you'll never use anything else.

Printing Department of The Sea Coast Echo.

Office: Echo Bldg.

Telephone 100

H. G. PERKINS Insurance Agency, Fire, Life, Liability, Auto, Accident, Health

I Specialize In Insurance

Give me a "ring" or drop me a "line" and I will call on you and fulfill your wants

OPEN THE YEAR ROUND. AMERICAN PLAN.

HOTEL WESTON,

BAY ST. LOUIS, MISS.

Catering to Tourist and Transient Trade.

THE FOUR-SEASON HOTEL.

A Most Delightful and Home-Like Resort for Visitors.

Every room an outside room, all with private bath, single and double.

Address H. C. BABCOCK, Manager.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

In thanking our customers for their generous orders last year, we want to again call the attention of the public in general that Xmas is coming and orders for parlor sets, easy chairs or davenport should be given now. Just received latest samples of tapestry, damasks and draperies, which I would like for you to see.—Nuff Sed.

Window
Seats

W. H. SLINGER

Cory
Corners

Upholsterer.

Shop, 109 Toulme St. Residence, 105 State Street.

Discriminating buyers consult local realtor first

C. GREER MOORE Real Estate And Insurance

A wise buyer takes advantage of the knowledge of local dealer because he knows values.

I Insure anything against everything

GEARY-OAKES CO., Inc.

GENERAL CONTRACTORS
NEW ORLEANS

They Come Back For More

One of the surest signs of satisfaction with a commodity, a service or an investment is for those who have exchanged their money for it to return again and again for more.

Investors may purchase unsatisfactory investments once—but they never return. The peddler of gold bricks has no repeat sales.

Hundreds of holders of Mississippi Power Company Cumulative Preferred Stock have made second investments in this security. Some have made as many as five purchases during the year the stock has been on the market.

They come back because they believe Mississippi Power Company is doing a constructive work in the state. Therefore, they have faith in the future of the Company and in stock it issues.

They have learned by experience that it pays dividends regularly; that it is sold without misrepresentation on the highest possible plane; and that the company will stand back of every promise to investors.

INVESTIGATE

Mississippi
Power Company's Cumulative
Preferred Stock

COMPARE IT WITH YOUR PRESENT INVESTMENT

If your savings are idle you are losing money. Uninvested money not only fails to earn its way but it is actually an expensive luxury.

Your Neighbor
Is a Stock-
holder.
WHY NOT YOU?

Discuss our security with any of our employees, consult your own banker, or write directly to the

Investment Department
Gulfport, Miss.

WORK AND PLAY AT S. J. A.

A HUGE SUCCESS.
It is too late to say more of the children of Mary Fair with a Southern Cinderella as the chief attraction of the program follows:
Charakteris, an old aristocrat.
Miss Judith Mauffray
Enid Bellamy, a Southern Cinderella.
Miss Edith Ansel
Miss Barbara Winterberry, a famous social worker.
Miss Johnnie Bell Randolph, a little coquette.
Miss Anna M. Blaine
Katharine Hawks, an English nurse.
Caroline Hawks, her daughter.
Miss Loretta Smith
Mammy Judy Johnson, a black, blue-cross widow.
Miss M. M. Allingham
Place—A Southern home.
Sing Along, Chorus—The club.
Piano—Miss Sallie M. Atkinson.
Violins—Misses M. Pierce and T. Ward.
Act I—Living room at Charakteris hall.
Enid comes home.
Intermission, refreshments.
Act II—The burning of the will.
Intermission.
Act III—Cinderella goes to the ball.
Southern Medley, Chorus—Piano, Miss Erin Saucier.

THANKS.
A unanimous vote of thanks is offered to the faculty and student body of St. Stanislaus college for the use of their auditorium, as well as for the generous operation which went so far towards making the evening a successful one.
Grateful acknowledgment is likewise due to those who so liberally donated refreshments and toys.

THE UNFINISHED—
Evelyn without her vanity.
Margaret's unknown letter.
Mary leading the choir to the altar.
Verna without her spit curl.
Anna not trying to rival Webster.
Bertha being laid.
Theda without her car.
Eryn being dignified in the calling.
Vivian getting married.
Kate leading her class.
Lila being awed.

NOTICE.
Some girls seem to be of the opinion that 1926 is an age of tyranny.
DO YOU RECOGNIZE THE FOLLOWING?
Greenie, Bert, Fatty, Anns, The Twins, Frenchie, Ignatz, Tom Boy Taylor, Community Chest, Steve, No Luck, Sweet Johnny, Scaramouche, Bye-Bye Blackbird.

AGREED.
Kate agrees that "It's too late now to be sorry."

ON THE COURT.
Coach: If you don't stop that rough playing you will be disqualified.
Evelyn: What in the world is that?

FIVE DOLLARS REWARD!
If you can tell us why Bee and Mary enjoy the week-end?
Evelyn raved last Monday.
The seniors think a knowledge of chemistry is beyond them.
Vivian has become so serious lately.
Some girls are deterred to do or die.
Class 27 has become dignified.

HONORS FOR NOVEMBER.
First Honors—Alberta Beyer, Anna Le Jeune, Mary Bourgeois, Evelyn Boh.
Second Honors—Beatrice Smith, Lila Glennon, Margaret Blaine, Vivian Blaise, Eryn Saucier, Althea Black.
Third Honors—Sallie Mae Atkinson.
Fourth Honors—Lois Hobbs.
Fifth Honors—Mary Pierce, Verna Batson, Hazel Kergoson, Lois de Armas, Lucille de Armas.

Freshmen.
First Honors—Verna Zengaring, Dorothy Hubbard.
Second Honors—Anna Mae Blaise, Ione Canty, Elizabeth Crawford, Loretta Smith, Dolores Powers, Gertrude Partidge, Theresa Ward.

Eighth Grade.
Second Honors—Alice Lee Byrnes.
Third Honors—Lorraine Quintini.
Fourth Honors—Evelyn Richerson, Mary Louise Crawford.

Fewer Autos.
The October production of motor vehicles fell off considerably as compared with September and with October, 1925, according to the commerce department, Washington. Passenger machines made in October numbered 238,842 as against 250,913 in September, and 394,056 in October, 1925. For the year to date, however, the record is well in advance of any previous record.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL ELECTION.
The qualified electors of the City of Bay St. Louis are hereby notified that the Board of Mayor and Aldermen passed the following resolution:
"Whereas a petition has been filed by over ten (10) per cent of the qualified electors of the City of Bay St. Louis asking that an election be held to determine whether or not the qualified electors of the City of Bay St. Louis will adopt the Commission Form of Government or retain the present form of government, and Whereas the said petition has been properly certified to by the Secretary of the City of Bay St. Louis, and that all things having been done in the proper and legal way by the petitioners and officers are required to hold a special election as provided by Chapter 120 of the Laws of 1912, Section 6404 of the Boulay Code, and
Whereas it is the desire and wish of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen to submit said question to the qualified electors of the City of Bay St. Louis for their determination, therefore,
Resolved, that the Commissioners of Election of the City of Bay St. Louis be and they are hereby authorized and directed to call and hold an election on Saturday, the 15th day of January, 1927, and that an official ballot be printed by said Commissioners as provided by said act of the Legislature, and that the said Commissioners shall duly advertise the holding of said election as required by law to be held on said date in the manner and form provided by said act of the Legislature, and that said Commissioners of Election shall file their report with this Board at the next regular meeting after said election as provided for by law.
Be it further resolved that W. J. Gallie, Daniel J. Ziegler and William C. St. John be and are hereby appointed as Commissioners of Election to hold said election, and that they shall hold the same on the 15th day of January, 1927.
You will therefore take notice that a special election will be held in the City of Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, on Saturday, January 15, 1927, as provided by said resolution, said election being held at the City Hall on said date within hours provided for by law.
G. Y. BLAIZE, Mayor.
W. J. GALLIE, DANIEL J. ZIEGLER, WILLIAM C. ST. JOHN, Commissioners of Election.

DOROTHY'S WEEKLY LETTER.

Conducted Especially For The Sea Coast Echo.

Dear Girls:
How many of us realize the value of being dependable.

Some women have an idea that it is a prerogative of theirs to be irresponsible and to keep or break dates at will. Some women never make any effort to be punctual on any occasion. I have known members of our fair sex to begin their toilette as the clock struck the hour for the function or committee meeting they were slated to attend.

I have known business women who failed to realize the mistake they were making in coming to their work a half or a quarter of an hour late each morning.

I've known others who considered a slight headache or minor ills sufficient reason for a holiday. Of course, those of the above ilk never got very far in the work they were attempting to do. They just couldn't be depended upon.

The best cook I ever had lost her job because I never knew whether she would be in the kitchen the next morning or not.

One of the smartest and fastest stenographers I ever knew is still holding down a stenographic job because she couldn't be depended upon for accuracy. Her employer's work was such that slight mistakes meant much work and financial loss and the slower more dependable girls left the exceptionally rapid worker behind because of her one fault.

Take a pride in being dependable. Know that if you are expected to meet someone at a certain hour that they will have no doubts as to you being there.

Let your employer realize that you will be on the job at the appointed time, rain or shine.

You have no idea how valuable real dependability is. The girl who possesses such a trait and has the will power to live up to it is the one who makes the success of life.

Never fool yourself that just this one time won't matter. Don't start the habit and you'll never get it. And—you may smile—but I don't doubt that many a good proposal has cooled off as the suitor watched and waited for his lady love while she powdered her nose and curled her bob as the clock ticked off the thirty minutes over-time.

And—as a last word—how do you like to wait and wait on the other fellow—how do you like to depend on someone who doesn't come—and how do you like for the grocer, the baker and the dressmaker to add somebody else's bill to your bill each month?

I know you don't like it so for your sake and everybody else's sake learn to be dependable.

Yours, Dorothy.

The oil-electric locomotive, which many railroads are testing, in a 733-mile test run had an oil and fuel cost average of 1.2 cents a mile.

Ohio State university's R. O. T. C. is among the largest in the nation. Thirty-six hundred and twenty-eight students are participating in the corps activities.

In early Roman history, men had one name. Later they had three, praenomen, nomen and cognomen.

Funny man! Cheerfully hikes five miles for exercise; growls when he must walk two miles for gasoline.

A London professor has succeeded in transforming an aquatic creature into a land-living animal.

INTERESTING ECHOES OF ST. STANISLAUS COLLEGE FOR THE PAST WEEK

THAT'S ALL THERE IS.

Thanksgiving day Coach Commagere's fighting Rockchaw eleven closed its brilliant season with its annual turkey-day tilt with Poplarville. An enthusiastic crowd watched the Rockchaws go down fighting before the superior force of the invaders. Eleven stalwart fighters ended their football career at Stanislaus on that glorious fourth field. In a thrilling contest against more experienced opponents the Rockchaws played their best game of the season, and in scoring in the last few minutes of play, they idealized the traditional Stanislaus spirit. Class 27 leaves this heritage to the next year's team—that they keep up the reputation which we have gained on the gridiron and that they avenge the Poplarville defeat.

OUR COACH.

The 1927 football team wants to take this opportunity of thanking our coach, "Foster" Commagere, for his hard work and faithful training during the past season. Signed, Matthew Monte, Ed. Zaubrecher, Henry Bourne, J. LaNasa, Geo. Lager, Marchie Schwartz, Geo. Slade, Vincent Burns, Dominic Stassone, John Scalfio, Winston Bradley, Harry Glover, Jr., Lole Babin, Fernand Menu, John Hunter, Fred Davis.

STANISLAUS LOYALTY.

Stanislaus has long been famed for the loyalty of her students. During the past season every boy, big and small, cheered the team on to its victories, never lagging, even in the shadow of defeat. We should be proud of the spirit that prevails here, very few schools can boast its superiority.

POST SCRIPT.

Speaking of loyalty, S. S. C. students proved their conclusively last Thursday—proof—Ask Poplarville.

S. S. C. JRS. VS. JESUIT JRS.

Last Sunday, to the credit of Brother Conrad's coaching—and to the credit of the school itself, the Stanislaus Juniors fought a scintillating tie with the Baby Blue Jays. The ambitious Juniors, in spite of the fact that the odds of size and weight were against them, evened the contest by act of hard work and relentless fighting. To land individual stars would be to mention the entire line-up.

BASKET BALL.

Our coach, Foster Commagere, has organized the basketball league from which he will pick his teams. Nearly every boy in school is trying his level best to make one of the teams. From such promising material and such fine spirit, we hope to have some championship games.

RESULTS OF WEDNESDAY GAMES.

Bruno	14	vs.	Ware	5
Barn	8	vs.	Ware	5
Bradley	8	vs.	Ware	5
Thiery	11	vs.	Zaubrecher	9
LaNasa	9	vs.	Rinaldo	7

JOKES.

Private: Why do Italians like spaghetti? Leger: Aw stupid, don't you know that they grow in Italy?

ATTENTION GIRLS.

Author Naylor has refrained from athletics so he can devote more time to schooling.

ASSAULT.

Krause accused "Evolution" of an unmerciful attack while he had his back turned.

CHANCEY SUMMONS.

The State of Mississippi.
To Mrs. Isabel Byrd, Leonard McGehee, Mrs. Mary Williams, Pink Stewart, Gertrude Stewart, Mrs. Arzella Cooper, Kelly Stewart, Murphy Stewart, Will P. Stewart, Mrs. Lizzie Blake, J. F. Willis, W. J. Seal, John Seal, Tom Wilchard, Mrs. Henry Hoover, Mrs. Nancy Banister, Mrs. Eliza Seal, Mrs. Ophelia Willis, James McQueen, Mrs. Kate Lewis, Mrs. Polly Lewis, Miss Pearl McGehee, Mrs. Jona Bourgeois, Daniel B. Bordage, Daniel Seal, Jr., Frederick Seal, Jr., Mrs. Rena Robinson, Harry Hoyle, Mrs. Thomas Walter, Rodrick Hoyle, Clara Hoyle, Bessie Hoyle, W. B. Hoyle, Mrs. John Koch, Mrs. August Ingelhart, Claud Simmons, Mrs. Ozella Whitfield, Mrs. Carrie Norton, W. L. Boardman, J. J. Williams, E. J. Bordage, Mrs. R. B. Tyson, Mrs. Geneva Poltevent, Rudolph Fave, Jasper Williams, Julius Simmons, Mrs. Orlia Wheeler, Mrs. Murtle Sybald, Mrs. Maggie Ethimomson, Eugene Seal, Mrs. Paul Peterson, Mrs. E. H. Page, Jr., Miss Rebecca McQueen, Mrs.

Anna H. Willis, John J. Willis; the unknown heirs at law or devisees of Mrs. Eliza Stewart, Williams, deceased; Mat. Lewis S. Baldwin, if living, if dead his unknown heirs at law or devisees, and all persons having or claiming any legal or equitable interest in the following described land, to-wit:

The N. E. 1/4 of Lots 2 and 4 of Section 8, Township 3 S., Range 14 West, in Hancock County, Mississippi.

You are summoned to appear before the clerk of the chancery court of the County of Hancock in said State, on a Rule Day of said court to be held at the office of said clerk, on the second Monday of November, A. D. 1926, in the City of Bay St. Louis, to defend the suit No. 222 in said court of Pearl River Knolls, Incorporated, being a suit to quiet and confirm complainant's title to said land, wherein you are defendants.

This the 16th day of October, A. D. 1926.
A. A. FAVRE, D. C.
BY A. A. FAVRE, D. C.

What's in a Name?

POLARINE
"F" OIL
Made to Lubricate Your Ford

It is carefully compounded and of the right weight. Builds up and maintains a lubricating film on the transmission. This film will hold up under extreme pressure of the bands.

Two knives that look alike—yet one bears the stamp "Sterling" which to all the world means quality, a guarantee of endless service, which the other knife cannot give. Two gasoline pumps may look alike... yet, the name "Crown" on one, like "Sterling" on the knife is your assurance of quality. It tells you here is a motor-fuel that 50 years of experience in refining has perfected, whose quality is jealously guarded as our greatest asset. "Always Better" is more than a slogan. It is the watchword of our refinery, where each run from the stills is tested to see that from every standpoint each gallon of CROWN GASOLINE is "Always Better."

STANDARD OIL COMPANY
INCORPORATED IN KENTUCKY

CROWN
GASOLINE

1927 Auto Road Maps of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky and Mississippi can be had at any STANDARD OIL COMPANY (Kentucky) Service Station free of charge

POSTOFFICE ASKS PATRONS TO SHOP AND MAIL EARLY

DOI: 10.1002/for

Bridge Lab

100

The Sea Coast Echo

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR CIRCUIT AND CHANCERY CLERK.
The Sea Coast Echo is authorized to announce
A. G. (RED) FAVRE
a candidate for election to the office of Circuit and Chancery Clerk, of Hancock County, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR SUPERVISOR—BEAT 3.

The Sea Coast Echo is authorized to announce
A. J. BILBO
a candidate for election to the office of Supervisor, Beat No. 3, Hancock County, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

City Echoes.

—Chamber of Commerce meeting Tuesday night, 7:30 o'clock.
—The Echo for printing and engraving Christmas cards.

—Messrs. J. Ducote and A. S. Jefferies, business men of Gulfport, were visitors to Bay St. Louis Wednesday evening.

—Miss Louise Delhonde, accomplished young lady from New Orleans, has been visiting Mrs. E. J. Lacoste and Miss E. Edwards at home guests.

—Miss Mulliken, who has been spending a while in New Orleans visiting friends, returned to her home in Carroll avenue during the week.

—Mrs. A. B. Mallory returned home Sunday night from a day's visit in New Orleans, the house guest of Mrs. E. G. Jordy, and visited other friends.

—Mr. C. C. Drake, prominent resident of Crystal Springs, Miss., is visiting at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Gentry, in Main street, and is delighted with his visit to the coast.

—Mr. and Mrs. Horace L. Kergo, son and daughter, Helene, returned home from a week-end visit to New Orleans, where they were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Camille Jacques.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Clark, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Clark's brother, Mr. J. N. Wisner, returned to their home in Chicago last Saturday, visiting New Orleans and points along the Coast while here.

—Mr. H. S. Renshaw is back home again, welcomed by numerous friends after his sojourn to Toussaint infirmary, New Orleans, where he underwent the ordeal of a double surgical operation. We are glad to note the return home of our esteemed friend, a progressive spirit and booster for Bay St. Louis.

—Mrs. Funston Mauffray and infant daughter, after a visit of two weeks visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. O. Mauffray, the baby's grandparents, returned to her home at Pass Christian. Mr. Mauffray, assistant to the postmaster at Pass Christian, came over Tuesday afternoon to accompany his interesting little family back home. They were accompanied by Mrs. Jos. O. Mauffray and son, Alden.

—Among the visitors to Logtown Tuesday evening to attend the Robinson-Weston nuptials were Dr. and Mrs. Alvah P. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Leo W. Seal, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Weston, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Chapman, Mrs. E. J. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Rea, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lacoste, Miss Evelyn Lacoste, Miss Margaret Green, Mrs. Perkins, Miss Hermione Perkins, Jas. H. Geary, Cyril Glover, Miss May Edwards, Mrs. Winfield Partridge, Mrs. W. J. Harrison, Miss Alene Hansen, Mr. Albert T. Leonard, Jr.

—Senator Carl Marshall was the principal speaker at Biloxi last night at the banquet tendered 300 doctors and their families at the Buena Vista hotel, on the occasion of the sixteenth annual meeting of the Association of Surgeons of the Illinois central railroad system. The senator's address dwelt much about the Mississippi Gulf Coast and in referring to the medical profession he frequently made classical and historical allusion. The address was characteristic of the brilliant mind and eloquent tongue of the distinguished young speaker from Bay St. Louis.

—Murray T. Bangard, assisting Acting Postmaster Glover in the local office, on the 1st assumed his new position with the government, in charge of the rural delivery within the Bay St. Louis and Waveland territory, for which he had applied for some time since. He recently received his commission from Washington, qualified and went on the job Wednesday. He is succeeded in the post-office by Arthur Loicano, who was holding the rural delivery job temporarily. Mr. Bangard is efficient and reliable and we know of no man better fitted to hold this responsible trust.

MEETING TUESDAY NIGHT.

There will be a regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce next Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock. Masonic Temple and Secretary Gentry will send out notices. A large attendance is urged. There is considerable business and matters of interest to be discussed and disposed of.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to embrace this method to express our hearty thanks and gratefulness to the neighbors and other friends who were with us during our last illness and subsequent death of our dear mother, Mrs. Lena Damborno, who died Sunday and was buried the following day; for the many kind ministrations, floral and other expressions of sympathy, and also to the members of the Ladies' Woodmen Circle of Bay St. Louis.

We are grateful and appreciative of every attention and our thanks will ever remain lasting.

Gratefully,
MRS. VICTOR LUC, daughter,
JOHN DAMBORNO, son,
Bay St. Louis, Miss., Dec. 1, 1926.

DR. J. H. SPENCE
DENTIST
108 HULL, MAIN STREET
MONDAY, WEDNESDAY, FRIDAY
EVENING, 7:30 A. M. TO 4:30 P. M.
PHONE 124. Work Guaranteed.

With Our Advertisers.

Home-made candy for Christmas holidays is the subject of an interesting advertisement appearing on page six. Mrs. A. G. Favre and Miss Azalie Favre are past masters at making candy. They not only know how but they have a gift of knowing what to use and the proper proportions. In fact, so successful are they in this skill of making toothsome goodies that friends prevailed upon them to supply the public and they have yielded to this popular demand. A trial will convince. Telephones 104 and 91.

The Ideal Shoe Store, head of Main street, is now open and ready for business, and prepared to handle an extensive holiday trade. The Ideal was formerly Arnold's Shoe Store, a store with a reputation for honest dealing and better goods for less money. The new proprietor, Jos. di Benedetto, plans to live up to this reputation and to satisfy the many customers of Mr. Arnold. The famous W. L. Douglas shoe is featured.

Edwards Bros., local Ford dealers, have a new advertisement every week and it is worth while reading the series carrying information. The new Ford models are worthy of inspection. Manager J. L. Norman and other members of the Edwards organization will be glad at any time to show and explain and talk easy plan of payment. Dealing with a reputable house and buying standard product one can scarcely go wrong. Have you ever heard of anyone scrapping a Ford? Always a sale and exchange value exists.

Breath & Cue are featuring the exclusive local sales agency, and each week in the columns of The Echo have a new advertisement. A Dodge will make a splendid Christmas gift for the family. A dependable and popular car. Ask the manager of the Edwards organization. Mr. Breath will be glad to answer all questions and demonstrate; no trouble to show; a pleasure to explain.

Gulfport Woodware & Supply company, wholesale dealers, are bidding for local trade, and knowing this firm personally, The Echo can recommend without reservation. A full line of staple articles and cash and all purchases are delivered at door. Save freight, handling and buy from Coast firms. A telephone message or a letter of inquiry will bring a representative, if desired.

"Give furniture for Christmas," says the Bay Furniture company, located in the new store building, opposite L. & N. depot building. There are many handsome and attractive objects for your inspection. A visit does not incur an obligation to buy. Easy terms, cash if desired. A small amount down as first payment will insure delivery of goods to your home. The half page advertisement of the Bay Furniture company appears elsewhere in this issue of The Echo. Other big ads will follow.

How to make more money is always an interesting subject. The Mississippi Power company occupies much space in this issue of The Echo announcing 7 per cent. dividend on its stock, payable quarterly. This stock is desirable, pays well and is well backed by the assets and successful business of one of the largest concerns South. Considerable of this stock has already been sold in Bay St. Louis and Hancock county and more will be subscribed for by cautious investors. This is the best paying stock hereabouts that we know of.

Printed Christmas greeting cards will be used more this year than usually. You will feel dissatisfied to receive a greeting card from friends and have none of your own. The custom is growing. The Sea Coast Echo has the cards in stock and will do the printing at prices that are surprisingly low. We take orders for as little as twenty-five cards. Beautiful and tasty designs; high grade cards, but no high prices.

Have you pecans for sale? See Hardy Pecan company, representative now at Louis Benigno's, Nicaise and St. John.

Louisville and Nashville advertisers excursion for Sunday, December 12. See advertisement elsewhere in The Echo. Special train going and returning same day.

KILN NEWS ITEMS.

Nobody knew just what a brilliant Senior class we had until Wednesday morning. In spite of the fact that their rings were in the postoffice they had to finish their Biology lesson—and such a recitation! They were given permission to go after their rings as soon as they drew a bird nest. My! I'd like to see the bird that could lay an egg in that nest.

Howard Waters is back in school, after an absence of one month, on account of illness.

"Old Glory" will soon be flying over the high school campus. The school has a beautiful new flag, which will wave on a tall flag pole in front of the building.

The campus will be transformed into a "green sea" of oats. Mr. Powell is trying to make the campus match the students.

Athletics.
Kiln basket ball boys will play Advance at Sellers Friday night, Dec. 3rd, at 6:30.

Kiln Kronicles.
A banquet was given at the Rogers hotel Wednesday evening, Nov. 24th, for the base ball club.

Thirty-three guests were present, the players of last season, being guests of honor. Mr. Norton Haas, then manager of the team, presided as toastmaster. Mr. Emile Gex was principal speaker of the evening.

Everyone enjoyed the banquet very much, and it will encourage more operation between the ball team and the fans and promote a better town spirit.

Mrs. C. D. Madena, Mary Madena and Jack Fatheree were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dan-drea and family.

Mrs. C. A. Favre and children spent the day at the Cape Canaveral, where they visited relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Camille Curet and

BENEFIT DANCE FOR XMAS TREE FUND SATURDAY

Event For Worthy Cause to Occur Next Saturday at College Gym—Under Auspices and Direction of Members of Catholic Circle No. 1.

The poor children of Bay St. Louis will have their annual Christmas tree this year, a project dear to the heart of Bro. Peter, president of St. Stanislaus college, and which is in charge of the ladies of Catholic Neighborhood Circle No. 1.

Under the auspices of this organization and directed by its members, there will be a dance at the college gym, financial proceeds from which will be appropriated to the fund necessary to defray the expense of the tree and entertainment at Christmas time. The public is invited to attend or otherwise patronize. The admission charge will be 50 cents.

It is interesting to note while the Xmas tree is made possible by the goodness and liberality of the Catholic congregation, the tree, with its great store of toys and presents, will be for children of all denominations—barring none. Religion will not be considered. It is for the children of this city and vicinity—one and all alike. Remember the benefit—next Saturday, December 11th.

Has Narrow Escape When Auto Overturns

Mr. J. W. Scheib, brother of our fellow townsman George F. Scheib, had a very narrow escape from death in an auto accident last Tuesday while on a return trip from Pine Hills hotel to Pass Christian, when his car skidding on the paved road near Pass Christian Isles and over turned.

Mr. Scheib was driving in company with a friend at the time and declares that he was not driving at an immoderate speed, when the car skidded into a hole off the roadway and turned over.

Assistance was fortunately near and Mr. Scheib was extricated from the perilous position. He was immediately taken to the clinic, finding that he had suffered lacerations of the right leg and a twisted knee, besides being considerably shaken.

Dr. Smith pointed out his injuries painful, but not necessarily serious.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS.

FOUND—One bird dog. For further information phone Henry Lang at LeBlanc's Grocery.

LOST—On Nov. 14, 1926, one female Collie puppy, six months old. Color, white and black. Finder reward to 320 Carroll Ave. and receive reward.

HOUSE FOR RENT—Reasonable; half or whole house by month or longer. Mrs. Weir, corner Front and Bookkeeper Ave.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Sealed bids will be received by the Road Protection Commission of Hancock County until Tuesday, December 14th, 1926, at 11 o'clock a.m., at the Courthouse, Bay Saint Louis, Mississippi, for constructing a road along Bay Saint Louis extending approximately three (3) miles north and south of the intersection of the road of the existing road protection.

The approximate quantities are as follows:
Contract "A"
48,800 lin. ft. Stepped Type Concrete V-ditch.
2,670 lin. ft. Drain Pipe 12 in.—36 in. diameter.
1,104 Cu. Yds. Concrete in culverts.
88,820 lbs. Reinforcing Steel in culverts.
10,820 Yds. earth excavation.
261,500 Cu. Yds. dredged earth fill.
Plans and specifications may be reviewed at the office of the Chancery, Hancock County, Bay Saint Louis, Mississippi.

Copies may be had upon application to J. W. BILLINGSLEY, Consulting Engineer, interested in the above work, at a charge of $20.00 which will not be returned will be made for plans and specifications.

A certified check for five (5) per cent of the total amount of bid, made payable to the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County, must accompany each bid.

The right is reserved to waive formalities and reject all bids.

This the 28th day of October, 1926.
R. C. ENGMAN, Chairman.
Hancock County Road Protection Commission.

COMPLETELY CRIPPLED THIRTY-FIVE DAYS

Tried simple home treatment—now walks easily without cane

How the agonizing pain of an acute attack of rheumatism was eased, and recovery hastened is told in a letter from John Smith of Shock, Ky.

"I was taken with a pain in my left leg, and for thirty-five days I could not sit up," he writes. "I got no better until I began using Sloan's Liniment. Before I had used one bottle I could sit up, and now I can walk without a cane."

And it is amazing—the quick, genuine comfort Sloan's Liniment gives. It doesn't just deaden the pain. It stirs up the body to throw off the cause.

No need to rub even. A little Sloan's patted on lightly—and a healing tide of fresh, germ-destroying blood begins tingling through the aching place. Before you can believe it, the pain, swelling and stiffness are relieved. Get a bottle today. All druggists—25 cents.

Sloan's Liniment
KILLS PAIN

Baby spent the week-end with Mr. Curet's mother. Keen spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keen.

Mrs. D. J. Everett spent last week-end in New Orleans, visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Williams moved to Piquette, where Mr. Williams is employed with the Good Year company.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Giles moved to New Orleans, where Mr. Giles is employed.

We are sorry to learn that Miss Jesse Cuevas was injured in an accident Wednesday morning. The accident occurred at the Cape Canaveral, where she was visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Camille Curet and

MISS WESTON BECOMES BRIDE OF H. H. ROBINSON.

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE)
in the pathway of the bride. Her partner, Leo W. Seal, Jr., of Bay St. Louis, was detained at home by illness.

The groom was attended by Hugh Martin, of Birmingham, as best man. Walter Galliard, of Mobile; E. Cony Weston, of Logtown; Harold E. Weston, of Logtown, and Joseph Barker, of Birmingham, groomsmen.

The bride, gowned in beaded white satin, with rhinestones, was given away by her father, J. H. Weston. The veil of tulle illusion was purchased in Venice, Italy, while the bride was visiting there last season. Her bouquet was shower effect and of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her veil was of such length and fullness as to form a train effect, and was promiscuously dotted with diminutive bunches of orange blossoms.

The groom's sister, Mrs. Hugh Martin, of Birmingham, presided at the piano, accompanying Mr. Foster Com-magere, of Bay St. Louis, who sang, "Le Credo d'un Payson," by Goublier, preceding the entry of the bridal party into the church.

An informal reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, where a plate supper and other refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson left the same night for New Orleans by way of Bay St. Louis, where they were literally showered with the proverbial "good luck" rice, many friends and acquaintances present to wish them God speed on their journey. The following morning they sailed for Havana, Cuba, and will be at home in Birmingham after the Christmas holidays.

A. & G. THEATER PROGRAM.

Attractions To Be Shown Next Week.

SUNDAY, MONDAY, DEC. 5-6:
Gloria Swanson in "The Untamed Lady."

TUESDAY, DEC. 7:
Edmund Lowe, Alma Rubens and Belle Bennett in "East Lynne."

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 8:
George O'Brien, Lon Tellegen and Joan Renee in "The Silver Treasure."

THURSDAY, DEC. 9:
Dorothy McCall, Jack Mulhall and Charles Murray in "Subway Sadie."

FRIDAY, DEC. 10:
Hoot Gibson in "The Man in the Saddle."

SATURDAY, DEC. 11:
Tom Mix in "The Everlasting Whisper."

PECANS WANTED

Will pay market price for pecans, all sizes. Located at Louis Benigno's corner, Nicaise avenue and St. John street, Bay St. Louis. It will pay you to see us before selling.

HARDY PECAN CO., of Pascagoula, Miss.

You Are Cordially Invited to attend the services at the Methodist Episcopal Church, South,

SUNDAY
Communion at the close of the morning hour. Evening worship at 7:45.

Hurried lady shoppers in Detroit may now telephone and primp at the same time. A downtown department store has installed small mirrors on the mouthpieces of telephones in its ladies' rest room.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Rea will spend Christmas at Denver, Colo., where they will be house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rolle Bradford. Later they will travel to the Pacific coast and spend a while in California before returning home about the middle of January.

Dame Rumor whispers a well-known local matron will issue invitations within the early part of next week for a Christmas dinner-bridge to be given during the week prior to Christmas. This will, no doubt, be the first of a number of holiday events.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lefebvre, visiting their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Burg, in Bookkeeper avenue, will return to their home in New Orleans tomorrow afternoon after a two-week visit. Mr. Lefebvre has loads of friends here who are glad to see him and to learn that he is fast gaining back his former good health.

Douglas Bourgeois, son of our esteemed townspeople, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bourgeois, and his good wife are receiving messages of congratulations and good wishes on the occasion of the third anniversary of their home in Main street, another dainty little Miss, who will be known as Mary Louise. Mrs. Bourgeois, Miss Gaines before her marriage is well known both in Louisiana and Mississippi and many friends from away as well as locally will learn of the good news with much interest along with the friends of the young and justly proud dady.

The Echo is in receipt of a bunch of chrysanthemums from Albert Heitzman, grower, that are not only attractive for size and fullness but for the unusual coloring of lavender, that far exceed in beauty anything of the kind seen hereabouts. Mr. Heitzman grew the unusual chrysanthemums at his home in Kellar avenue with ordinary good care. He was quite successful and found out that a matter which at first occurred to him as a pleasure finally proved to be financially profitable as well, selling quite a number. Here is hint for others to do likewise.

Further Particulars From Local Ticket Agents.

J. K. RIDGELY, Gen'l Passenger Agent,
(Lines South of Birmingham) New Orleans, La.

Excursion to New Orleans
Sunday, December 12

Live. Pass Christian.....9:20 A.M.....1.85
Live. Bay St. Louis.....9:30 A.M.....1.55
Arr. New Orleans.....11:20 A.M.

Special train will leave New Orleans returning at 6:30 P. M., Sunday, December 12th, 1926. Tickets good only on special train going and returning.

See the many attractions including the New Orleans permanent international trade exhibit.

Further Particulars From Local Ticket Agents.

J. K. RIDGELY, Gen'l Passenger Agent,
(Lines South of Birmingham) New Orleans, La.

Excursion to New Orleans
Sunday, December 12

Live. Pass Christian.....9:20 A.M.....1.85
Live. Bay St. Louis.....9:30 A.M.....1.55
Arr. New Orleans.....11:20 A.M.

Special train will leave New Orleans returning at 6:30 P. M., Sunday, December 12th, 1926. Tickets good only on special train going and returning.

See the many attractions including the New Orleans permanent international trade exhibit.

Further Particulars From Local Ticket Agents.

J. K. RIDGELY, Gen'l Passenger Agent,
(Lines South of Birmingham) New Orleans, La.

Excursion to New Orleans
Sunday, December 12

Live. Pass Christian.....9:20 A.M.....1.85
Live. Bay St. Louis.....9:30 A.M.....1.55
Arr. New Orleans.....11:20 A.M.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES.

Beautiful Luncheon-Brige.

No event in local socialdom has proven more outstanding this gay fall season and more delightful in every aspect than the six-course luncheon and bridge party which followed on last Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Edward Carrere, of Waveland and New Orleans, at the Hotel Weston, in compliment to Miss Dorothy Weston, of Logtown, whose marriage to Mr. H. H. Robinson, of Birmingham, was celebrated this week.

The table was decorated with a lavish and tasty proportion of white carnations and white chrysanthemums, the colors of white and green predominating, while the favors were baskets filled with delicious nuts and confections. The place cards were appropriate, carrying the picture of the typical bride in her flowing veil tied with orange blossoms. The menu was a special one for the occasion and seemingly it was a wedding feast. Nothing was omitted nor spared.

Following the luncheon bridge riveted the attention of the guests for the balance of the afternoon. The honoree, Miss Weston, wore a corsage of white carnations and white roses, completing her costume, a favor to her place at the table. Rewarded for their skill at the intricate mysteries of bridge were the following, in the order named: Mrs. Roger M. Boh, Mrs. W. J. Harrison, Miss I. Weston, Miss Caro Weston. The prizes were unusually handsome and well worth striving for.

Among Mrs. Carrere's guests in addition to Miss Dorothy Weston were Mrs. Kenneth Pepperdine, Mrs. Carl Marshall, Mrs. A. F. Fournier, Mrs. John H. Weston, Mrs. S. A. Power, Mrs. R. de Montuzin, Mrs. Lommax, Mrs. Owen Crawford, Mrs. Charles G. Moreau, Mrs. Roger M. Boh, Mrs. W. J. Harrison, Mrs. (Dr.) Alvah P. Smith, Mrs. Winfield Partridge, Mrs. Clem Weston, Miss Evelyn Lacoste, Miss Margaret Green, Miss Caro Weston, Miss Lucille Weston, Miss Irene Weston, Miss Aline Rancey, Miss Mary Perkins.

Of the many delightful and beautiful parties given within the fall season, Mrs. Carrere was easily one of the larger and fashionable events.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Weston Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Weston on Tuesday afternoon were respectively host and hostess to a beautiful luncheon at the Hotel Weston to compliment Miss Dorothy Weston and Mr. H. H. Robinson, whose nuptials were celebrated that same evening at Cooper Chapel, in Logtown, home of the bride. The table was attractively decorated with chrysanthemums and smilax ferns, arranged with marked taste and fetching attractiveness.

Mr. and Mrs. Weston had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Weston, the bride's couple-chose, Miss Mary Bolton, Miss Mary Perkins, Miss Mil-bent Street, Miss Andrea Martinez, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Martin, Mr. Walter Galliard, E. Cony Weston, Joseph Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Weston, Mr. A. Coburn Weston, Mr. Leo W. Seal, Mr. Coburn L. Weston and others.

Dame Rumor whispers a well-known local matron will issue invitations within the early part of next week for a Christmas dinner-bridge to be given during the week prior to Christmas. This will, no doubt, be the first of a number of holiday events.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Rea will spend Christmas at Denver, Colo., where they will be house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rolle Bradford. Later they will travel to the Pacific coast and spend a while in California before returning home about the middle of January.

Dame Rumor whispers a well-known local matron will issue invitations within the early part of next week for a Christmas dinner-bridge to be given during the week prior to Christmas. This will, no doubt, be the first of a number of holiday events.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lefebvre, visiting their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Burg, in Bookkeeper avenue, will return to their home in New Orleans tomorrow afternoon after a two-week visit. Mr. Lefebvre has loads of friends here who are glad to see him and to learn that he is fast gaining back his former good health.

Douglas Bourgeois, son of our esteemed townspeople, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bourgeois, and his good wife are receiving messages of congratulations and good wishes on the occasion of the third anniversary of their home in Main street, another dainty little Miss, who will be known as Mary Louise. Mrs. Bourgeois, Miss Gaines before her marriage is well known both in Louisiana and Mississippi and many friends from away as well as locally will learn of the good news with much interest along with the friends of the young and justly proud dady.

The Echo is in receipt of a bunch of chrysanthemums from Albert Heitzman, grower, that are not only attractive for size and fullness but for the unusual coloring of lavender, that far exceed in beauty anything of the kind seen hereabouts. Mr. Heitzman grew the unusual chrysanthemums at his home in Kellar avenue with ordinary good care. He was quite successful and found out that a matter which at first occurred to him as a pleasure finally proved to be financially profitable as well, selling quite a number. Here is hint for others to do likewise.

Further Particulars From Local Ticket Agents.

J. K. RIDGELY, Gen'l Passenger Agent,
(Lines South of Birmingham) New Orleans, La.

Excursion to New Orleans
Sunday, December 12

Live. Pass Christian.....9:20 A.M.....1.85
Live. Bay St. Louis.....9:30 A.M.....1.55
Arr. New Orleans.....11:20 A.M.

Special train will leave New Orleans returning at 6:30 P. M., Sunday, December 12th, 1926. Tickets good only on special train going and returning.

See the many attractions including the New Orleans permanent international trade exhibit.

Further Particulars From Local Ticket Agents.

J. K. RIDGELY, Gen'l Passenger Agent,
(Lines South of Birmingham) New Orleans, La.

Excursion to New Orleans
Sunday, December 12

Live. Pass Christian.....9:20 A.M.....1.85
Live. Bay St. Louis.....9:30 A.M.....1.55
Arr. New Orleans.....11:20 A.M.

Special train will leave New Orleans returning at 6:30 P. M., Sunday, December 12th, 1926. Tickets good only on special train going and returning.

See the many attractions including the New Orleans permanent international trade exhibit.

Further Particulars From Local